Fees and Money

- No increase in fees this year.
- View Trickum website for breakdown of fees parkviewband.net/marching-band-information
- We understand the uncertainty with Covid-19 impacting our community. In the unprecedented event that marching band is significantly delayed, altered, or canceled for 2020-2021, the marching band portion of your fees will be refunded before the first rehearsal. We are unable to provide exact details at the moment as we do not know how our schedule will be affected next year. Please rest assured we will work with families if this situation occurs.
- We ask that you be transparent with us regarding your ability to pay band fees this upcoming year. We will hold your messages in confidence and will work with you to create a plan that works for you and PBBA. This includes if financial hardship strikes your family over the summer or into next fall
